

Our goal is to help repair the relationships that are harmed by crime and conflict in our community by relying on the knowledge and wisdom of the people who are impacted most. We provide a safe environment for members of the community to come together and listen to one another.

Restorative Justice Panels

- Have you ever wondered how our community can respond to crime in a creative and non-punitive way?

We're here to help offenders take responsibility for their actions and support victims to have a voice and share their experience.

Restorative Justice panels bring together victims, offenders and community members to discuss the impact of a crime and find ways to make amends to all parties.

Please call Jocelyn Dubuque at 865-7589 for more information or email her at jdubuque@ci.burlington.vt.us

Offender Reentry Program:

- Are you looking for work?
- Have you recently been incarcerated?

We have an employment specialist to help you get back on your feet.

We offer assistance with interview skills, resume building, completing applications and more.

Please come to one of our weekly meetings 10am Tuesday mornings or call 865-7574 or email clongmore@ci.burlington.vt.us to connect with Christine Longmore.

Parallel Justice for Victims of Crime:

- Did someone smash your car window?
- Was your home broken into?
- Have you been a victim of crime where no one was found responsible?

We can help you restore safety and meet basic needs by:

Providing emotional support, information, referrals to other agencies and discounts from local businesses.

We're here to help you so that you don't have to do everything on your own. Please call Rain Banbury at 264-0764 for more information or email her at rbanbury@ci.burlington.vt.us

Graffiti Removal Team

- Was your house or property vandalized and need help cleaning it up?
- Do you want to volunteer to help keep Burlington looking its best?

The Graffiti removal team provides free graffiti removal for residents in Burlington.

We're here to provide speedy clean-up and counteract the "broken windows" theory of neighborhood problems. Please call Nicky Beaudoin at 865-7548 or email her at nbeaudoin@ci.burlington.vt.us

Restorative Justice Offers:

- ◆ A different way of thinking about crime and our response to it as a community;
- ◆ An opportunity for offenders to take responsibility and take steps to repair the harm caused by their actions;
- ◆ A safe and supportive space for victims to share their stories and regain trust in their community.

Debbie La-Fromboise, is the owner of Sewly Yours Bridal Shop, and a participant in the Restorative Justice process.

The Burlington Community Justice Center is a program of the City of Burlington's Community and Economic Development Office

Burlington Community Justice Center

179 South Winooski Avenue
Suite 200
Burlington, VT 05401
(802) 865-7155
www.burlingtoncjc.org

“It gave me hope that he can make better choices and has the support to do so.”

Since 1999, reducing the impact of crime and conflict.

The CJC helps the community repair the damaged trust and relationships caused by crime and conflict through restorative justice programs.

Restorative Justice elevates the position of victims and the community in the justice process and allows community members direct access in responding to crime.

179 S. Winooski Avenue
Suite 200
Burlington, VT- 05401
(802) 865-7155